

THE RITA SCOTT DIAMOND VOLUNTEER AWARD

“As a diamond is forever, so will the legacy of Rita Scott shine in our hearts forever”

OVERVIEW OF THE AWARD

This award was established in 2003 in memory of a very dedicated volunteer, Rita Scott. Rita volunteered her time and talent at The Centennial Centre for Mental Health and Brain Injury as well as in the community with her church and other organizations. Rita contributed over 1000 hours and was truly an inspiration to so many people in our community. Rita's motto was "living one day at a time and seeing the goodness and richness in everything".

Special thanks to Rita's family for ensuring this annual award is presented to a deserving individual and or group who exemplify the true spirit of volunteerism.
